With FYI, your information is easier to access, manage, analyze and edit.

FYI is SouthWare's new and powerful data query and analysis portal for graphical workstations. Through FYI, users can easily query and analyze their SouthWare information in new and exciting ways.

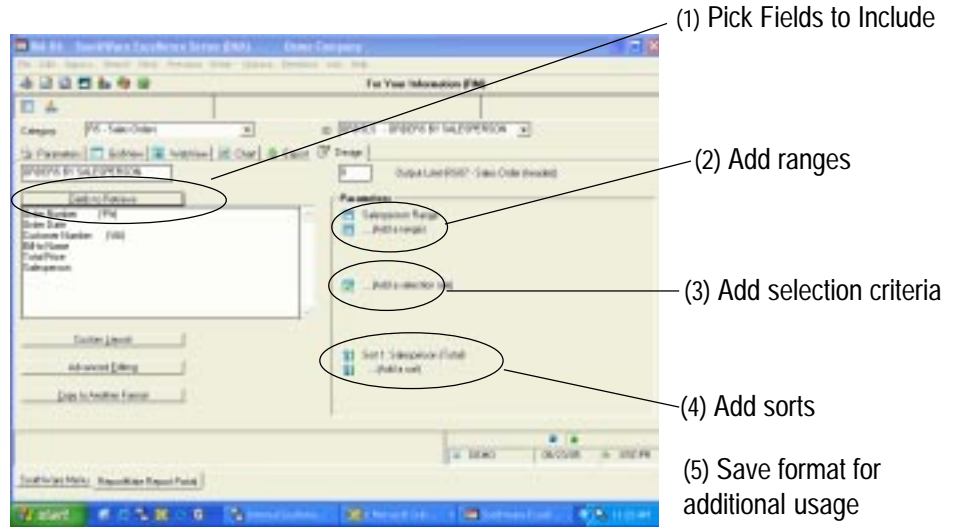

FYI and ReportMate

FYI is based on ReportMate, SouthWare's intelligent report writer. FYI uses ReportMate technology and formats as the data retrieval engine. The data then passes to the FYI portal which provides the new graphical interface with many new reporting options. Through multiple tabs you may both edit and use an FYI ReportMate format to view your data as a report, grid, web page, chart and export it to a data file or to other software, such as Microsoft Excel.

Because FYI utilizes ReportMate formats you can immediately use it with your existing ReportMate reports as well as easily create new FYI-oriented ReportMate formats.

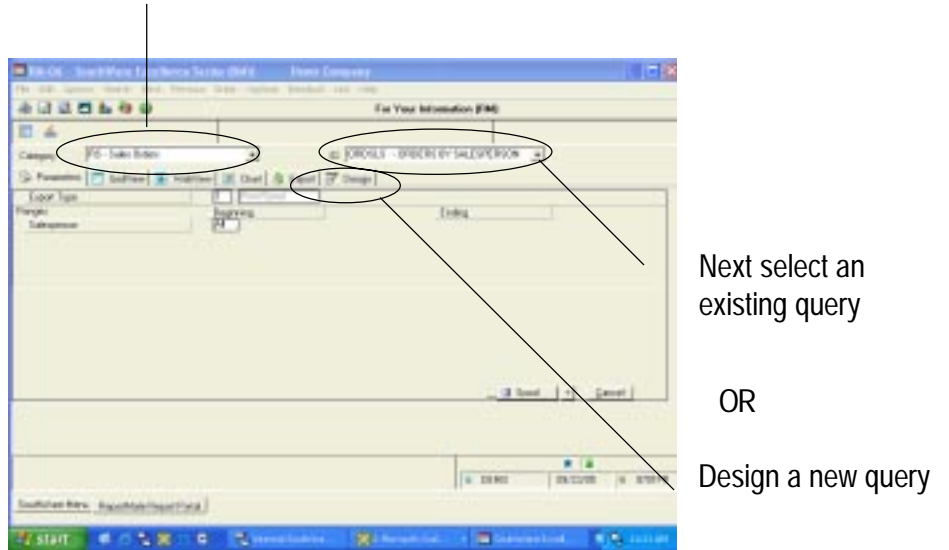

DESIGN

The Design Tab allows you to customize a format or create a completely new format.
